

This image shows the fore-edge of a very thick, antique book. The pages are numerous, tightly packed, and exhibit a range of brown and tan hues, indicating significant age and possible water damage or foxing. The edges of the pages are uneven and worn. The binding, visible on the right, appears to be made of a dark, possibly leather or cloth material, which is also aged and shows some cracking. The overall appearance is one of great age and historical value.

CHAMBERLAIN TELLS WHY.

Imperial Unity and Tariff Are Inseparable.

Los Profit in Political Than in Commercial Union.

Official Celebration of King's Birthday—Concert for Union Jack Club.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. LONDON, June 26.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Constitutional Club today entertained Colonial Secretary Chamberlain at luncheon, and presented him with an address, enclosed in a letter, in recognition of his services to the empire. Premier Balfour made the presentation speech. Referring to Chamberlain's fiscal proposals, he said it was an absolute folly for the Conservative Unionist party to make opinion on economic questions a test of party loyalty. The present economic position of the country demanded the most careful consideration. The country was now in the position of an armistice which kept his balloon in the air by throwing out sand bags. That was a very proper course, so long as it was a sufficient supply of sand bags when they were exhausted, it was time to reconsider the position. It was not supposed that because self-government had been given to the colonies, they could be regarded as separate political entities. On the contrary, they were integral portions of the British Empire. The question at issue was not new, but Mr. Chamberlain had given life to the expression of the ideal of imperial unity. Mr. Chamberlain received a remarkable ovation when he rose to reply. His speech was "For He is a Jolly Good Fellow," and then cheered Mrs. Chamberlain, who was among the spectators.

The secretary opened his remarks by repudiating the suggestions of personal competition between himself and Mr. Balfour, remarking that he did not conceive any occasion that would shake the political and personal friendship existing between them. He based on the eve of a great controversy publicly to state that he valued the leadership of Mr. Balfour as much as he valued the leadership of the Unionist party. It is a false alliance was dissolved, and the home rule was only a matter of time, and it would come to the front.

Being the problem occupying the center of the political stage, Mr. Chamberlain declared that the commercial union of the colonies would be more profitable than their political union. It was not true he had raised the cry of preferential tariffs for the benefit of himself or the party, but it was because there was no other alternative to a man holding his position, and he believed that only thereby could the Empire be held together.

On the inquiry about to occur, he continued, all questions should be argued on their merits. A policy of retaliation could be better defended as a policy of negotiation. The Ministers endeavor to break down the existing tariff walls, and if they fail in these negotiations they will endeavor to retain for their own country the best possibilities for production and employment, the duty of which was now driving British goods to foreign lands. Great Britain wanted something to bargain with, and she had never been able to make a satisfactory deal until she had something to give as well as to receive.

When a section drawing was made on this question, but he was now speaking for himself, and he did not ask anyone to commit himself to the acceptance of his views.

KING'S BIRTHDAY.
OFFICIAL CELEBRATION.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. LONDON, June 26.—[By Atlantic Cable.] King Edward's birthday was officially celebrated today in London at a grand naval and military stations, the public buildings were decorated with flags, salutes were fired, the warships of all the ports dressed ship, and the troops were reviewed.

The triumphs of the "unknowns" of a year ago can be repeated this year by new candidates, who have as yet not emerged from the mists of obscurity. It must be remembered, however, that it takes intelligent and continuous effort to achieve the highest success. Among those who entered the contest with little prospect of success last year, was Miss Louisa Molina, a native daughter of California, whose family resides at Colgrove. Miss Molina graduated with honor from the Colgrove grammar school, and went into the Woodbury Business College, where she is now holding a good position in a business office in the aristocratic beach resort.

UNION JACK CLUB.
CONCERT FOR ITS BENEFIT.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. LONDON, June 26.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The King and Queen and Prince of Wales last night at a concert at Albert Hall for the benefit of the Union Jack Club, which was organized to honor the memory of the men killed in Africa and China.

American contingent turned out in full force, headed by the Duke of Devonshire. Among other Americans were Mrs. Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, and Ethel Belmont, the latter selling postcards.

WARNING TO FRUIT MEN OF CALIFORNIA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Commercial says conservative dealers are warning California producers against the danger of asking too much for their fruit this season. Naturally, growers are anxious to obtain all they possibly can, but there is danger that they will defeat the very object they hope to obtain. They are planning to ask higher prices than consumers will be likely to pay. Throughout there is a strongly marked upward tendency on all food supplies, and actual increase amounts in some instances to double last year's prices. If California people join in the movement and ask more than the traffic will bear, there will be some difficulty in selling products.

The situation has been pointed out by a good many men who are in trade in fruit, and an effort is being made to have all opening prices made fair, not high. If this is done there will be liberal sales, and every one will make more money.

Discussing the fruit situation today, a prominent dealer said: "The position is good, and I believe this market will be looking for supplies of larger sizes before the middle of July. Jobbers all report a good outlet, and some have had to come into the market to buy lately, showing such stocks are running down. The general position is strengthened by the demand for export to France, and the aggregate movement in this direction has been of fair proportions. The demand has taken out considerable lots of medium sizes, particularly 3's. The market at the moment is not ready for futures, and the prices made have attracted only small buying interest. The crop position is hardly known yet, and until the trade can be accurately figured, the trade is not likely to jump at the speculative prices now put out."

SOME WIDE AWAKE GIRLS AND BOYS.
TWENTY-THREE names appear on the list of contestants for the Times scholarship contest this morning. That means there are at least twenty-three girls and boys in Southern California who are awake to the opportunity that confronts them. Twenty-three is a larger number than was looked for at the start, and several days yet remain before the contest will be formally opened.

All signs point to a lively and spirited contest, and those who win the prizes will know that they have been leading a strenuous life. Keen rivalry is what will add zest to the contest. The victors will be the better for the experience, and if they win in the face of powerful competition, and even the vanquished will not rue defeat, if they have the consciousness of having done their best.

GOOD WAY TO GROW UP.
The last name added to the list is that of John Harnish, of No. 122 West Thirty-ninth street. Harnish is a New York City lad, who came West only about a month ago to grow up with the country. He is 15 years old and doesn't know a better way to grow than under the stimulus of the scholarship contest. Whether he wins one of the scholarships or not, he hopes to profit by the experience, for it will give him an opportunity to get acquainted with the people who are going to be his future neighbors and fellow-townsmen. Any one can see that John has a level head, and it is a safe prediction that he will adapt himself to western life and his new surroundings as easily as a duck takes to water.

There are boys who were born in Los Angeles fifteen or eighteen years ago, and who have been here ever since, who will not know as much about the City of the Angels, or be acquainted with as many of its inhabitants as this boy, hence his tenderfootism which arrived only a month ago, because they lack the energy to engage in a scholarship contest, or anything else that brings them in contact with the people in a business way.

SPRIT OF 'I CAN.'
The boy who made the highest score in last year's scholarship contest had been in Los Angeles only a few months when the contest opened. Yet by his energy and perseverance, he made a record for himself as a "hustler" that made him famous throughout Southern California. Frank Cummings, Jr., can get a good position almost anywhere, if he wants it, because he demonstrated during the Times Scholarship Contest of 1902 that he knows how to make a success of his undertakings. Although practically a stranger in Southern California, he was able to win a scholarship here, and did so, and received a handsome cash bonus besides. His experience shows what a boy can accomplish when imbued with the spirit of "I can."

No less remarkable was the success of some of the girls who participated in the scholarship contest last year. Several of those who made the most phenomenal scores were scarcely known beyond the borders of the village, or the block in which they lived, when they entered the contest. Their influence seemed so limited that it seemed ridiculous for them to hope to win among a field of competitors who enjoyed wide acquaintance, yet by sheer force of will and industry these young ladies came out triumphant, and now number their friends by hundreds, where they formerly counted them by the dozen.

TRIMPHS OF UNKNOWN.
The triumphs of the "unknowns" of a year ago can be repeated this year by new candidates, who have as yet not emerged from the mists of obscurity. It must be remembered, however, that it takes intelligent and continuous effort to achieve the highest success. Among those who entered the contest with little prospect of success last year, was Miss Louisa Molina, a native daughter of California, whose family resides at Colgrove. Miss Molina graduated with honor from the Colgrove grammar school, and went into the Woodbury Business College, where she is now holding a good position in a business office in the aristocratic beach resort.

SEE TOMORROW'S

Comfortable Attire...

Every tailor could easily enough say his tailoring was better than Smith's, Jones' or Johnson's. So we won't say it about Silverwood tailoring, but we do say this—Silverwood tailoring occurs to be best.

Because of our skillful cutter. Because we make but one suit of a kind. Because we do our own importing. Because our tailoring department pays no rent. Because we adhere to a perfect system of small profits. Because we guarantee every suit to be satisfactory.

And just ordinary prices—$20, $25, $30, $40, $45 (silk lined, these at $45).

F. B. Silverwood
221 S. SPRING STREET
LOS ANGELES, CAL.

DIPLOMATIC FROST.

Only the Representatives of Russia and Austria Attend a Reception Given by King Peter.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M. BELGRADE, June 26.—[By Atlantic Cable.] King Peter held a reception this morning. Only two foreign diplomats, the Russian and Austrian Ministers, attended. The representatives of three or four other countries apparently were willing to recognize King Peter, but not the Serbian Cabinet, in which Col. Maschin, one of the chief conspirators, holds a portfolio. The King's reappearance of the ministry yesterday is regarded as equivalent to a notification that no punishment will be meted out to the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga.

Foreign Minister Kalevics has sent a circular to the Serbian representatives abroad, explaining that King Peter reappointed the Cabinet because he considered that he could not do better than intrust the government to the men in whom Parliament had, a few days ago, expressed its full confidence. One of the first tasks of the ministry will be to order new elections, and the King will then be able to select a second Cabinet from the predominant political party.

The German Emperor has sent King Peter a telegram couched in cordial terms.

OBITUARY.

Capt. A. W. Pierce.
NEW YORK, June 26.—Capt. Allan W. Pierce, who served as acting ensign under Admiral Farragut during the Civil War, is dead at Rockville Center, L. I., aged 78 years. Capt. Pierce began his seafaring career when 15 years of age by shipping aboard a whaler from New Bedford, Mass.

Rev. J. De Forrest.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Rev. Joseph de Forrest, Episcopal minister from Davenport, Iowa, was found dead in bed at his hotel here. He came to this city recently to look after some property interests and on last Sunday he assisted in the services at Grace Church, apparently in the best of health. The deceased, who was 60 years old, leaves a widow and daughter in Davenport.

Samuel T. Williams.
NEW YORK, June 26.—Samuel Thompson Williams of Clifton, S. I., is dead, aged 83 years. He was appointed Consul at Hamburg, Germany, by President Johnson, and under President Garfield was for a time chargé d'affaires in Brazil.

Joseph W. Fairbanks.
AMHERST, Mass., June 26.—Joseph W. Fairbanks, treasurer of Amherst College for the past six years, is dead. He was a graduate of the class of '66, and had been an instructor in Worcester, St. Louis, St. Paul, Minn., and principal of Williston Seminary, East Hampton.

WENT VISITING.
What She Learned at the Old Home
After being away from the old home for years folks sometimes go back and find some surprising changes. An Ohio lady says: "I learned something valuable about coffee when I went home. I had been sick all the time with heart trouble and headaches and used a great deal of medicine without getting better. One time I went to my old home on a visit and there found my father and mother using Postum Food Coffee and both feeling so fine and well. 'They both begged me to try Postum and I finally did so to please them and to get something to help me to improve immediately. After using Postum in place of coffee for a short time the heart trouble stopped entirely and did not return except when I tried some coffee while on a visit to a friend's house. Now we use Postum exclusively in our family and husband and the children enjoy the fine drink as much as I do and we are well. There is a lady living near us who had been sick for years, doctoring all the time and not getting any better. We sold her a package of our Postum and now they use it all the time and she is better than for years before and says Postum did it all. Her name is 'I enclose the names of my father and mother who are fine healthy examples of the advantages of using Postum in the place of coffee.' All the above names given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

The Broadway Department Store
BROADWAY COR. FOURTH, LOS ANGELES. ARTHUR LETTS, PROPRIETOR.
Telephone Main 337.

Semi-Annual Pre-Inventory Sale

AN INVINCIBLE ARRAY OF BUSINESS BRINGERS

Our Pre-Inventory Sale appeals to the economical and thrifty of all classes. It presents money-saving chances to the purchasing public no matter the nature of their wants. Every department is represented and all lines of merchandise are priced at figures as low or lower than the wholesale cost. Here are a few of the special items for today's selling:

New Mid-Summer Hats $4.98
Shapes Alone Worth $5.00.
Fresh new lot of mid-summer hats, beautifully trimmed, white chiffon shapes, tucked, plaited and shirred; the trimmings consist of high grade flowers and ornaments; some of the new mixed braids; hand made shapes; all elaborately trimmed; hats in this collection worth up to $18; the shapes alone would be cheap at $6.00; a large assortment for our Pre-Inventory Sale today at each, $4.98.

Nobby little box turbans of fancy straw, white with black edge and black with white edge; daintily trimmed with brush and ribbon; some of the new mixed practical ways; specially priced for today at, each, $2.48

Dress shapes, plain and fancy mixed straw in red, blue, black, burnt and natural cream; turbans and piteau effects; the new mixed straw hats; all at 50¢ today, each.

Special Showing of Untrimmed Shapes and Flowers
REDUCED PRICES FOR TODAY

Hat Shapes An odd lot of untrimmed shapes, in pink, blue, black, etc.; some slightly soiled; originally worth up to 75¢; today, each, 25¢.

FLLOWERS—An odd lot of flowers and foliage, grasses, wheat, etc.; all new stock, all desirable styles; worth up to 50¢; today, per bunch, 50¢.

Hat Shapes A small lot of black shapes; good quality braids; good models; worth 80¢; today, each, 10¢.

FLLOWERS—Choice roses and carnations, good size bunches, fresh new stock, all desirable styles; worth up to 25¢; today, per bunch, 10¢.

FLLOWERS—Wreaths, clusters of roses with or without foliage, grapes, cherries and fruits; worth up to 60¢; today, per bunch, 25¢.

One Hundred New Walking Skirts $4.98
Excellent $6.00 Values.
Today we will offer one hundred spick, span, new walking skirts made from light weight wool crapes in pretty shades of navy blue, oxford and light gray; perfect fitting, well finished garments that would be cheap at $6.00; priced for Pre-Inventory Sale today at, each, $4.98.

$1.75 Nightgowns $1.25
Women's muslin gowns, made from especially good cotton, long and full, V neck front and back with yoke of cluster tucks and fine Valenciennes insertion; ruffled sleeves with val lace edge; $1.75 value; priced for Pre-Inventory Sale, today, $1.25.

$2.00 White Skirts $1.48
Fine white skirts made from good quality cambric, deep double flounce of lawn with four wide tucks cleverly arranged in a new way, three rows of lace insertion and lace edged flounce; extra dust ruffle; $2.00 value; priced for Pre-Inventory Sale today, each, $1.48.

Two Hundred Dozen New Corset Covers
We've just placed on sale a lot of new corset covers, a little more than two hundred dozen in all; midsummer styles; dainty, choice and desirable; all sizes; lace and embroidery trimmed; especially priced for Pre-Inventory Sale today at, each, 19c, 25c, 35c and 49c.

Special Showing "Nemo" Corsets
We always have plenty of "Nemo" corsets on hand for we are sole agents for this famous brand, still there is an advantage in buying "Nemo" corsets today.

MISS MILL OF NEW YORK is here to fit you and assist you in the selection of a satisfactory model. She will gladly show you the advantages of the famous "Nemo" corsets.

The "Nemo Self Reducing Corset," low cut, for short waisted, stout women or long hip for women with too generous hips; perfect fitting; sale price, $2.50 per pair.

The "Nemo Delta Dip Corset" gives slenderness and length to the waist; made of French coutil in white or drab; have an automatic garter fastening; sale price, 18 to 20¢; price, per pair, $2.50.

Bargain Center Aisle 7.
The Liveliest Spot in This Busy Store.
Today we will devote the entire Bargain Center to the sale of a lot of handsome pictures. Some of these have the frames slightly marred from being displayed, the prices however are so low that you won't notice a little imperfection.

80c Framed Pictures for 24c
89c Leather Frames for Pictures for 10c
Decorated Frames for Photos. 10c

$1.25 Large Frame Pictures for 89c
$1.00 Large Frame Pictures for 89c
39c Framed Pictures for 10c
10c Pictures of Various Styles for 8c

50 Piece Dinner Sets $3.00
Good Value at $6.50
Today we offer a limited number of 50-piece decorated semi-porcelain dinner sets, that are mis-matched, that is, there has a piece or more been broken and other pieces substituted, the decorations not matching exactly. These sets are well worth $6.50. They are just the thing for beach cottages. Today while they last, per set $3.00.

Bargain Tabloids for Morning Shoppers
ON SALE FROM 8 TO 11 A. M. ONLY. NO TELEPHONE OR MAIL ORDERS.

HOSIERY for boys and girls; fast black, corduroy or fine ribbed, seamless; 1 1/2 and 1 3/4 value; this morning per pair, 7c.

UNDERWEAR for men; French Balbriggan shirts and drawers; sizes 34 to 42; drawers have double seats; underwear that sells regularly at 50c; this morning per garment, 25c.

SHIRT WAISTS percales and ginghams, odd lots, regular prices 40c and 50c; mostly large and small sizes; this morning, each, 25c.

BOYS' SUITS made from cash, sailor blouse styles; ages 8 to 10 years; wash suits well worth $1.00; this morning, each, 25c.

BEACH HATS for men, women and children, good full shapes; this morning, only one to a customer, at each, 1c.

Men's Suits Worth up to $30 $10.00
We have about 25 suits left from the Murphy Bros. custom made stock; which we sold sometime since. These are odds and ends, suits worth from $25 to $35. This morning between the hours of 8 and 11 you can choose from these at, per suit $10.00.

Men's Trousers Worth 7.00 and 8.00 $2.98
About sixty pairs of men's custom made trousers from the Murphy Bros. stock, $7.00 and $8.00 values. This morning between the hours of 8 and 11 per pair $2.98.

the right if bought here."

omery
JEWELERS
SILVERSMITHS
Spring, Douglas Building

Just What You Need.
If you have no appetite, do not eat your food and feel dull after eating, you may know that you need a Chamberlain's Stomach and Bowls Tablets.—[Adv.]

Chamberlain's Granulated Eyelids.
This Eye Remedy cures this and other eye troubles. It makes weak eyes strong. Druggists

JOH VON BRETON,
Jeweler. 260 South Broadway.

ENGINE WORKS — PHOENIX

511-515, South Broadway, 1905-1910.

Big Bargains in Men's and Boys' Bathing Suits—and when we say "Bargains", we mean just that and nothing else. See if we don't.

SEEDS. GERMAN SEED CO.
The Largest Seed and Plant House in the West.
326-330 South Main Street.

Refrigerators $7 Ice Cream Freezers $1.50.
Lawn Mowers, Garden Hoes
HENRY GUYOT,
414 South Spru

ENGINE WORKS - FOUNDRY

SEEDS. GERMAIN SEED CO.
The Largest Seed and Plant House in the West.
326-330 South Main Street.

MUNYON'S

18

PHYSICIANS—

Drs. SMITH & ELKIS, SPECIALISTS FOR women, treat successfully all chronic, nervous and surgical cases of women; first-class sanitarium with graduated nurses; consultation and advice free; 16 years in Los Angeles; can give best reference in the city; hours: 10 to 4, 7 to 8; Sundays, 9 to 12. 13 N. MAIN ST. Home 'Phone No. 322. Res. 881.

METAPHYSICAL HEALING. THOUSANDS have been cured; chronic diseases and eye and ear trouble treated without medicine; cure guaranteed. DRs. REYNOLDS &

SUTTON, 314 S. Spring. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

DR. SOMERS TREATS SUCCESSFULLY: all female diseases and irregularities; nervous and chronic diseases of either sex; 25 years' experience. Tel. John 200. 212-21 CURRIER BLDG., 212 W. Third st.

DR. KAIN TREATS ALL FEMALE DISEASES AND IRREGULARITIES; nervous and chronic diseases; specific blood poison in every form; home comforts for patients. 4134 S. SPRING ST. 'Phone Home 4190.

MRS. DR. NEWLAND, MIDWIFE, WILL attend and board ladies during confinement at either of their own homes, 1124
SEVENTH ST. Tel. Red 606.
LONG AND SUCCESSFUL PRACTICE: Experienced and competent ladies' specialists; cases guaranteed; strictly reliable. N.M.
WOODS, 341 S. Hill st.

DR. REBECCA LEE DORSEY, PG-30 STIMson Block. Women's, children's diseases and obstetrics. Hours 1 to 4 p.m. Tel. M. 1297.

MATERNITY HOME, DR. BOTT, 124 E. Flower st. Cmc. 2314 E. SPRING ST. Special attention to diseases of women.
DR. UNGER, CANCER, TUMORS, STRICT-ure, both sexes; no knife. 1044 E. HOWARD.
DR. GARRISON, CANCER AND MALIG-nant diseases. 404 E. SPRING.
DR. TAYLOR, FEMALE SPECIALIST AND obstetrics. 284 E. MAIN ST.
JULIAN MACRAE, INITIATE. 604 SOUTH Flower. Home 4004.

MINING—
And Assaying.
LOS ANGELES ASSAYING & REFINING CO
(Incorporated.)
WM. T. SMITH, Sec. and Manager.
American National Bank, depositary.

Million buyers to any amount.
 Mint prices for old jewelry, etc.
 Assayers and mining experts.
 Mines bought and sold.
 Bullion gold and silver and solders for dentists and electroplaters.

501 N. BROADWAY, upstairs.

HAVE FOR SALE SEVERAL THOUSAND tons of gold tailings, running 10% close to railway; plenty of water and fuel; can be treated by cyanide process. Address C. C. Cox, 1000 Broadway, New York.

FOR SALE—SILVER AND GOLD MINE.
$100,000 in gold value blanchet out and sight. For particulars, address S. F. WILSON, 131 W. Jefferson st. 25

WANT TO INVEST IN GOLD MINE:
good salary paid for work. Address
D. box 55. TIMES OFF! 25

HAVERSTOCK & STAFF. 123 W. FIRST.
Ameyers. Properties sampled. No students.

MOVED TO HIS W. 5TH ST. GROUND
Now. W. B. ROBERTS, owner and tenant.

WADK & WADK, ASSAYERS AND CHEMISTS.
142 N. E. FIRST ST.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW—

LAW BUSINESS, EVERY DESCRIPTION;
terms reasonable; 25 years' practice; collections; no charges unless successful. Room
311, AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK BLDG.,
Broadway and Second st. N

MRS. LAW AND COLLECTION CO. (INC.)
 Truften P. Dyer, attorney and notary. Collections made everywhere; no fee without success. 414 DOUGLASS BLDG. Tel. Main 1514.

DIVORCE LAWS A SPECIALTY. ADVICE
 free; no fee without success; damages. J. R. SMITH, 211 Pennsylvania Bldg. Call 2 to 4 P.M.

J. MARION BROOKS (EX-V. S. ATTY.)
 Open evenings. 141 & 1/2 way. Notary. Jan. 129.

DIVORCE POINTERS BOOK FREE
 Sent. Main envelope. LAWYER, 41 COV.

OIL PROPERTY—
Miscellaneous
FOR SALE CHEAP, one FIRST 84 CASINO;
2000 feet 1-inch tubing and rods; one 20-
H.P. boiler; all in perfect condition.
DORAN, BROUKE & PRICE, First and Baltimore.

FOR SALE—1 COMPLETE STANDARD drilling rig in good order, and all sizes casing.
P.O. STATION E. E. A. CLAMPITT.

FOR SALE - TYPEWRITERS, ALL KINDS:
 Smith and Wad; rented and exchanged
 TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE, Wilson 844

PRICE & CO. 61 GRANT BLDG. TYPEWRITERS and supplies, rentals, repairing, etc.
 Phone Peter 622.

COLUMBIA RAE-LOCK VERNER TYPEwriter; send for catalogue. 22 Cal. & P
 THE BLICKENSDORFER, UP-TO-DATE, 20
 N. LOS ANGELES ST. Tel. Main 25.

EDUCATIONAL—
Schools, Colleges, Private Tutors.

GRADUATE CHICAGO UNIVERSITY, TU-TOR in university six months, wants pupils in Latin, English or common branches.
Seven years experience as High School teacher. Exchange for Spanish. Address
H. box 58 TIMES OFFICE. 2

A THOROUGHLY EXPERIENCED TEACHer will tutor pupils in the higher grades or in High School work. Best of references.

Address D, box 50, TIMES OFF-
FICE. 5

SURVEYING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
land, railroad, etc.; also spheres for latitude, time and true meridian; taught practically.
J. KERR, surveyor, 229 Avenue H.

STUTTERING AND STAMMERING.
Branch celebrated Massachusetts School, cure of impediment, at 322 E. BROADWAY.

D. A. TENTS

PATENTS—
And Patent Agents.
CHARLES S. ROGERS, (LATE OF WASHINGTON, D. C.) Solicitor of Patents and Infringement Lawyers. 126 West Third Street. Tel. John 7661. Los Angeles, Cal.
PATENTS OBTAINED IN U. S. AND FOREIGN countries; trade-marks and copyrights.
DAY & DAY, 232-234-235 Stimson Street, Los Angeles, Cal. Tel. James 8711.
PATENTS — PROTECT YOUR IDEAS. NO

allowance, no fee. Consultation free. 421
15A. MILO R. STEVENS & CO. 329 14th St.
Washington.

PIONEER PATENT AGENCY—21 YEARS
Downey Block. New 16-page book on Patents free. HAZARD & HARTMAN.

JAMES R. ROGERS, EX-EXAMINER U. S.
Patent Office. Patents. Room 124, Spruce Bldg.

PERSONAL—Business

PERSONAL—THE FAMOUS READER OF hands. Mrs. Kathryn Chase will soon leave the city; those wishing to see her professionally must do so before July 1. 542 E. Broadway, suite 117.

PERSONAL—MANICURING AND PALMIST
by young lady just from Paris. Room No. 1 at 428 E. SPRING ST.

PERSONAL—MME. ORA. MRS. A. SPRING.
Palmist, card reader. Ladies. 5c; men. 10c.
PERSONAL—MRS. MARY ROBERTSON.

PERSONAL—MRS. KATE HUCKING, SPIRitual reader, 224 S. SPRING ST.

PERSONAL—VAC. STEER'S HAIR STONE,
Same old place. IN W. FOURTH.

RATE FOR ADS UNDER THIS HEADING,
10c per line; minimum charge, 25c.

DENTISTS—
And Dental Rooms.
SCHIFFMAN DENTAL CO.—

1st N. Spring. Painless extracting, filling, crowns and bridge work. Softest rubber plates. Pure gold fillings, $5 up; all other fillings, 50c up; cleaning teeth, 50c up; superior gold crowns and bridge work, $2.00 up; partial plates, $2 up; full sets, $2 up. Open evenings and Sunday forenoons.

M O D E L S—
 And Modelmakers.
MODEL MAKING AND EXPERIMENTAL

Couch Covers $3.00 up.
Door Panels $1.00 up.

J. J. Martin

210-23 St. Lawrence St.

Wheel Chairs sold or rented.

MUNYON'S

City	Temp
New York	70
San Francisco	65
Los Angeles	75
Chicago	68
London	62
Paris	60
Bombay	85
Calcutta	88
Yokohama	78
Manila	82
Hankow	75
Peking	72
Harbin	65
Urumchi	60
Amoy	80
Canton	85
Shanghai	82
Tientsin	75
Beiping	72
Chongking	78
Kobe	75
Osaka	72
Tokyo	75
Yokohama	78
Manila	82
Hankow	75
Peking	72
Harbin	65
Urumchi	60
Amoy	80
Canton	85
Shanghai	82
Tientsin	75
Beiping	72
Chongking	78
Kobe	75
Osaka	72
Tokyo	75

Weather conditions for June 27, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for June 28, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for June 29, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for June 30, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 1, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 2, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 3, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 4, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 5, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 6, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 7, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 8, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 9, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 10, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 11, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 12, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 13, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 14, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 15, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 16, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 17, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 18, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 19, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 20, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 21, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 22, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 23, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 24, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 25, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 26, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 27, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 28, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 29, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 30, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for July 31, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 1, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 2, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 3, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 4, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 5, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 6, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 7, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

Weather conditions for August 8, 1902. The weather is generally clear and warm. The temperature is in the 70s and 80s.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Steel from Europe. The Pacific Electric Railway Company reports the arrival of about 16,000 tons of steel rails from Europe. The rails are to be used on its Whittier and San Pedro branches.

Blue-Ribbon Meetings. At Blanchard Hall on Sunday evening Francis Murphy will speak on "Hunger." At the street-car headquarters on Central avenue, at 9:30 Sunday morning, besides Mr. Murphy's talk, there will be a talk by Miss Callender and Prof. Rugh.

Given Sixty Days. Ygnacio Reyes was arrested yesterday morning by Detective Davis on a charge of petty larceny, consisting of the theft of tools belonging to a carpenter named Simon, at First and Alameda streets. He was caught in the act, and pleaded guilty in the Police Court. He was sentenced sixty days on the chain gang.

Christ Church in Simpson Auditorium. It has been definitely settled that Christ Episcopal Church will worship for eight months, except August, in Simpson Auditorium, beginning with the first Sunday, in July. St. Paul's parish, within whose territorial limits the auditorium is located, has courteously given its consent.

Joseph Scott in England. Joseph Scott of No. 2520 West Eighth street, who went East last month as a delegate to the National Convention of the Knights of Columbus, has gone on to England to visit his mother, whom he has not seen for ten years, and arrived at London yesterday. He will not return until the last week in August.

Sunday-school Outings. Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church and the United Brethren Church will give their Sunday-school picnics today—the former at Long Beach and the latter at Ruben Canyon. On Tuesday the Episcopal Church will give an ocean outing to its members.

Wheel Thieves Caught. Will L. Oakes and George Wynne were arrested yesterday by Detective McKeon on a charge of grand larceny. They are accused of the theft of two bicycles. They were taken to the Police Court and the evidence against them was submitted. Oakes was held to answer in $1000 bond to the Superior Court. The examination of the other prisoner was set for July 3 at 10 o'clock.

Boy Seizes Bomb. Alexander Ebert, the young son of a Russian rancher at Monrovia, who was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Traeger and lodged in jail here on the charge of having unlawfully extracted a letter from the Monrovia postoffice addressed to a young lady of that place, secured bond yesterday to the amount of $1000, and was released to appear for examination before Commissioner Van Dyke July 8.

No Flies on Blakes. Young Alva Blake of this city, having wearied of fighting single-handed the swarms of flies in his stable, evolved from his father's brain a practical use for the premature obsolescence of the "sticker" from a fresh sheet of sticky fly-paper and offered a prize to his friends for the one who catches the greatest number of flies in a given time. He declared that the most interesting and the most original, and is not endangered by any shortage of flies.

Voorhees Jury Locked up. The trial of S. D. Voorhees for assault on John H. Hendrick, the telephone repairman who dared call him living without asking leave of the union strikers, closed in Justice Austin's court just before noon yesterday, and the jury retired. They had failed to agree at 10 o'clock last night, and were locked up for the night. It was given out that the jury stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal. The evidence was positive as to the guilt of Voorhees, and it is difficult to conceive what the three jurors can find to stand on.

Troops for Manila. Jesse I. Bodkin, son of Rev. P. H. Bodkin, editor of the Independent, is here on a furlough from Troop D, United States Cavalry, which has been stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. This troop, with Troops A, B and C of the Twelfth Cavalry, passed through Los Angeles Wednesday night for the Presidio, San Francisco, where Mr. Bodkin will join them today. They are to be sent to Manila, P. I., accompanied by the Seventeenth United States Infantry, from Vancouver Barracks.

Free Trip to the Sea. The first free excursion to Santa Monica for the season, will be given by the Salvation Army on next Wednesday. A few tickets are still left, and any person knowing of deserving poor children and mothers should send the names at once to the Salvation Army. The tickets will be gladly furnished as such as they hold out. Beautiful provision will be made for feeding the entire party, which will consist of between 250 and 300 women and children. May, Conzett says he is not hesitating at any necessary expense, as past experience has taught him that the charitable citizens of Los Angeles will come promptly to his rescue.

Church of St. Boniface. The beautiful new Church of St. Boniface at Anaheim will be dedicated with imposing ceremonies tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Thomas J. Conaty. This will be one of the first official acts of Bishop Conaty in this diocese, and will be attended by many priests and prominent laymen from outside parishes. The Knights of Columbus of Los Angeles, of which order Rev. Joseph Dubbel, the pastor of St. Boniface, is a member, plan to go down to Anaheim in large numbers, and Montgomery Cavalry, Young Men's Institute, will send a delegation. About 300 people will go from this city on the 9 o'clock train tomorrow morning, and will return in the evening. Bishop Conaty starts tomorrow night for Menlo Park, where he is to deliver an address at the commencement of St. Patrick's Seminary.

BREVITIES. At auction, 10:30 a.m. today, at 217 W. 4th street, Solis One Co.'s stock of Japanese and Chinese fine art goods, comprising French knot embroideries, hand-carved teakwood furniture, bronzes, cloisonne China ware, porcelains, ivory, linen and silk embroideries, kimono, dressing robes and jackets, silk embroidered screens, Lacquer screens, Inlaid ivory, etc. If you want to know all about Avalon and Catalina island, who's there, and what's doing, send 50 cents to the Times office for a month's subscription to "The Wireless." Avalon's new daily published by The Times-Mirror Company. It prints "All the News All the Time" concerning the enchanted island, and tells fish-fish stories every day.

Rev. Dr. Geo. Dowling, the pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, will preach for the Independent Church of Christ in Simpson Auditorium Sunday morning, at 10:45 o'clock, on "The Gracie Problem: Children's Wages."

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

Los Angeles Daily Times.

THE WEAT THE PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICIAL DOINGS. THE ORANG

SUMMARY OF THE DAY. An offer for the $480,000 issue of common school bonds from the Los Angeles Trust Company and the William R. Staats Co. of Pasadena will be presented to the Council in special session this morning.

The Board of Public Works decided yesterday to recommend the acceptance of Charles Stansbury's bid for street sprinkling.

There was a flurry over the drug contract in the Supply Committee yesterday morning, but a motion to award it to Off & Vaughn finally prevailed.

Pomona City Council is unwilling to let the City Attorney prosecute a case in line with his duty and makes a scene in Judge Allen's court.

Several pathetic cases came up in the juvenile court yesterday.

A Taylor and Frander, who robbed a Chinaman, were let off with a conviction for grand larceny.

AT THE CITY HALL. SCHOOL BOND OFFER FROM LOCAL BROKERS.

SPECIAL SESSION OF COUNCIL CALLED FOR TODAY.

Los Angeles Trust Co. and W. R. Staats Co. of Pasadena Offer Par and Accrued Interest for the Securities Bid for Bridge Bonds.

A bidder for the $480,000 issue of common school bonds has been found. Pasadena has joined hands with Los Angeles to market the issue. An offer of par and accrued interest for the securities was received yesterday afternoon from the Los Angeles Trust Company and William R. Staats & Co. of Pasadena. The bid is made jointly by the two companies.

The Los Angeles Trust Company submitted to the Council on June 1 a bid of par and accrued interest for the bridge bond issue of $100,000, and this offer is still open.

This morning at 9 o'clock a special session of the Council will be held to act on the bid for the school and bridge bonds. It is practically certain that the bid will be accepted and the City Attorney instructed to prepare the necessary measures to consummate the sale.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon at the office of the City Attorney, in which the representatives of the Los Angeles Trust Company, at which the City was represented by City Attorney Mathews and President Bowen of the Council. In the afternoon another conference was held in the City Attorney's office, W. R. Staats and J. C. Drake of the Los Angeles Trust Company were present.

It is understood that the local brokers have arrangements with one of the large eastern bond-buying houses to take the bonds, but in this case this point could be obtained. Those connected with the deal were very reluctant to discuss the bid, and only the mere fact that an offer would be submitted to the Council this morning by the companies was vouchsafed.

It is probable that further details of the transaction will be made public this morning if the Council decides to accept the offer.

The Council and the Board of Education are rejoicing at the turn affairs have taken. The schools are needed, and thirty condemnation suits as well as plans for the construction of buildings have been held in statu quo because of the failure to sell the bonds. If the deal is consummated, the acquisition of school sites and the actual construction will be rushed with all possible haste.

The sale of the school bonds will doubtless pave the way to the sale of the sewer and storm drain bonds. City Attorney Mathews has been confident that the sale of the bonds would be a success, and his view of the situation seems to have been correct.

Although the officials will not admit to this, it is reasonable to believe that negotiations are under way for the sale of the bonds not already spoken for, and that developments will come within a few days.

If a buyer for the school bonds had not come forward there is slight doubt that the city would have been reduced to a popular sale. The man who offered to take a $100,000 block of the school bonds was A. W. Staats, president of the Los Angeles Trust Company, who wrote to City Attorney Mathews as follows, under date of June 22:

"Enclosed you will find a check for $100,000, which is the amount of the bid for the school bonds. I beg to thank you for your public-spirited offer. It is, as you say, a matter of urgent importance to the city that these bonds should be sold. I am encouraged to believe that we shall soon find a customer for the entire issue, or if not that, there will be sufficient subscribers to take all these bonds."

STREET SPRINKLING. CONTRACT GIVEN STANSBURY. Charles Stansbury is in the lead for the street-sprinkling contract. The Board of Public Works decided yesterday afternoon to recommend that his bid of $1.71 per day for supplying the city with a sprinkling wagon and team be accepted. This action, if ratified by the Council, means that the street sprinkling will be under the control of the city authorities.

There was a vast amount of pulling and hauling yesterday before the board of public works decided to award the contract to Off & Vaughn, whose bid was shown to be lower than the Sun Drug Company's on articles much used by the city.

F. C. Wolfe for the latter company grew somewhat indignant at the statement made by David E. Todd, one of the companies was a responsible bidder, and he declared his readiness to put up a bond of $100,000 to furnish the city with a sprinkling wagon and team. Of course, Stansbury did not go and buy wagons and teams before knowing whether he could get the contract, and the lowest bidder was in a dilemma yesterday.

The board didn't tell him to go and support of the Off & Vaughn bid. At the same time they pointed out many peculiarities in the Sun bid. Davenport put out a certificate that the Sun company was on 930 articles and the Off & Vaughn company on 199 articles. But three bids high and was a neck little to the head angel with a wide white collar and saucer blue eyes.

"I have given you pennies," said the exasperated mother. "I have polished him with everything I've got in the house—but it doesn't do any good. He won't go to school."

"Well, if you can't manage that little fellow it's very strange," said Judge Wilbur. "He is a very smart little fellow. 'Now, Willie,' he said, 'will you promise me to be a good boy and go to school if I try you for a month?'"

"Yeth, thir," said Willie, and was allowed to go.

As school closed yesterday afternoon for the summer, Willie appears to have a cinch.

SHADY DEAL. WOMAN ACCUSED. An old man named John McClung has been arrested for a charge of cheating a woman on a lodging-house deal.

Mrs. Medea Smith, the complaining witness against him, says she bought for $1400 the furniture and good-will of the lodging-house occupying the upper floor of the Zahn Block, No. 423-1/2 South Spring street. She was to assume a mortgage of $1200.

She claims that on making the deal the fourth day after the date of having two years more to run, as McClung told her, had already expired and that the newspaper she was to assume as a mortgage was not $1200.

McClung was arraigned before Justice Pierce yesterday and his bail was fixed at $250.

HIGH WIRE WON. DISPUTED CLIENT. "High Wire" Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

When the case of an alleged thief was called, Allender and another lawyer had a fight over a client in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

THE WEAT
COMPARATIVE TEMPERATURE
At Los Angeles, June 27, 1908.
At 5 a. m. 60. At 8 a. m. 62. At 11 a. m. 65. At 2 p. m. 70. At 5 p. m. 72. At 8 p. m. 68. At 11 p. m. 65. Minimum 60. Maximum 72. Wind light S. by E. Clear.

WILL MAKE THE INFLUENCE OF THE DRUG
A Part of His Defense—Still Sentence Imposed by Judge Conklin—Cup
Coming from Lipton.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
SAN DIEGO, June 26.—With a tremor in his voice and tears in his eyes, Walter D. Smith, the young man in the County Jail on a charge of forgery, read in the Times tonight how his mother, Mrs. George D. Smith, of 448 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles, was loath to believe that her son was guilty of the wholesale forgery of checks in several Southern California cities ascribed to him.

FACT IS, I HAVEN'T BEEN STOPPING around home for a long time, he said. For some time I resided at No. 328 Thorne avenue, Los Angeles. That was the home of Leona Gavin, now my wife. I used to attend the Brownshower school, and I have worked around town. My parents did not know of my contemplated marriage. I secured my marriage license at Los Angeles, but carried it in my pocket several days without using it. Then the girl and myself decided it wasn't just right to be running around that way, and we went over to Pomona, where we were married by Rev. Mr. Mayers.

GETS STIFF SENTENCE.
Superior Judge Conklin today sentenced Florence Jallies to twenty-five years in the State penitentiary for assault on Marie Tappan. The evidence showed that Marie Tappan, who was married to a man named John Tappan, was living with Jallies at 14 and 15, riding with one Felipe, her lover, near Lakeside, when they were attacked by Jallies and Roberto Serrano. She was dragged from the carriage and brutally assaulted. Serrano has been tried since the conviction of Jallies, and the jury failed to agree upon a verdict.

MARINE RARITIES.
A rare find was made today by biological searchers, while investigating in local waters. A specimen of cladocera tracheata, a species of water bug, was discovered. This form of life is said to have never before been found in American waters. The rare specimen said never before to have been found in Pacific waters, was taken. It is the Eastern tracheata, a native of Maryland and North Carolina waters.

SAN DIEGO NOTES.
The second of the big barges to be used in connection with the dredging on the outer bar of the harbor, was launched last night. The tug Catalina, which is to tow the big barges, is here. Work will be commenced next week.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.
CUNEO G. VERNER and KATIE VERNER, of Santa Barbara, to J. R. Verner, of Santa Barbara, real estate, for $10,000, recorded at 11, block 1, Williamson tract, lot 1 and 2, block 1, Electric Railway Home-Steved Association tract, 1106.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.
CUNEO G. VERNER and KATIE VERNER, of Santa Barbara, to J. R. Verner, of Santa Barbara, real estate, for $10,000, recorded at 11, block 1, Williamson tract, lot 1 and 2, block 1, Electric Railway Home-Steved Association tract, 1106.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY
CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE.
Father, Mother and Daughter are Now Enthusiastic in Their Praise of This Wonderful Remedy.

TALKS WITH TRAVELERS.
Hon. L. J. McCleary of Mankato, Minn., member of Congress, is at the Angelus.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

RECURUIT
The Cigar That Will Suit.
5c
That rare combination—high quality and low price. Sold everywhere.

From Cook's from "The way Girl" Monckton to, Monckton's Serenade, by Mr. Geo. Grosser
the latest two step, all
E. C. Kammermeyer
"Venice" from "The Runadelly, "Melodie of 1897"
E. C. Calvin

Suits $10

H&K's.

should have a large

19c ce Sale.

25c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $1.95

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $2.48

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $4.85

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $8.65

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

HATS—wide dark
braids in white, navy,
black and white, all
values, $10c

Correspondence Sheet

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

XXIInd YEAR.

Reliable Goods. Popular Prices.

N. B. BLACKSTONE CO.,

Telephones 220-229 220-229

DRY GOODS Spring and Third St.

Neckwear Novelties.

WE CAN only give a few hints here of the hundreds of pretty things to be seen today at this Neckwear

Counter. Styles all strictly new, varieties almost Novelties priced in a way to command your attention.

Stocks at 15c Each.

Of white Cheviot or Pique, with black or colored binding, double ends at 15c.

Golf Stocks 25c ea.

Of white Pique or Cheviot with long ties in fancy stripes or plaid. Also plain Pique stocks with colored binding and lagging, ends 25c.

Fancy Stocks at 35c.

Made of white embroidered beading with long ends, run with white satin ribbon.

Damask stocks with colored binding, ends and small pearl buttons.

White Pique stocks with colored binding and colored lagging.

Merode Underwear Day.

Today we will sell 300 dozen pieces of Knit Underwear at a price lower than you've ever heard of good underwear selling.

100 dozen union Suits, Vests, Tights and Drawers worth at market value $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 for each, 50c.

100 dozen Vests, Pants, Tights and Union Suits, worth 50c and 15c for 25c.

100 dozen Vests worth 25c and 35c for each, 17c.

These are all the famous "Merode" hand-finished goods.

Pianos

If you are thinking of buying a piano—

Here's a rare opportunity.

Don't postpone it.

Today we'll offer a special assortment of well known makes.

Most of them as good as new.

Each is a guaranteed bargain.

They were taken in exchange for the Steinway.

They will be sold for about one-half their value.

One Smith & Barnes Upright,

French walnut case; formerly

$300, now $150.

One Howard Upright, in perfect order; original price $350; now

$175.

One LaFarge Upright, elegant case; originally $350; now

$175.

One Hardman Cabinet Grand; original price $550, in this sale for $275.

One Pease Cabinet Grand, new

French walnut case; worth

$400, now $200.

One Weber Cabinet Grand, originally $550, for quick selling,

now $275.

TERMS—A small cash payment is all that is required;

balance in monthly amounts—to suit the convenience of customers. All goods marked in plain figures.

Geo. J. Birkel Co.

Steinway and Cecilian Dealers

343-347 S. Spring Street

Hills

WE put up in various sized bottles a stuffed olive which we believe possesses more merit than can be found in any other similar commodity.

We understand this branch of our business thoroughly and take more than ordinary pride and care in producing a relish that will please the hard-to-please.

That our stuffed olives are good goes without saying;

they are the best we can make, which means they are the best you can buy.

All grocers have authority to guarantee the absolute purely of our stuffed olives.

James Hill & Sons Co.

New York, San Francisco, Portland, Los Angeles

Los Angeles Daily Times

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1903.

POLICE WANT MRS. O'NEILL.

Believe She Lured Mills to the House of Murder.

Strong Evidence Connecting Man and Wife With Crime.

O'Neill Fled from Los Angeles
Just One Day After Mills Disappeared.

Mrs. R. A. O'Neill and J. H. Williams—these are the two persons who are wanted in connection with the Mills murder case.

R. A. O'Neill, one of the men implicated in the brutal butchery of the manager of the Syndicate Loan Company, is safe in jail in South California.

Sheriff White left last night for Sacramento, where he will obtain requisitions from the Governor for the person of O'Neill, who is wanted here on two felony embezzlement charges.

One of the complaints was sworn to by W. R. Middleton, the Covina man, whom O'Neill defrauded out of $100, and the other by Howard A. Dodge, who is short $250 on account of O'Neill's peculations.

When O'Neill is brought back here he will undoubtedly be tried on the murder charge. The evidence confronting him is circumstantial, but strong.

Seemingly not a link is missing in the chain. Indisputable work by police detectives has served to fasten complicity in the crime almost beyond doubt on O'Neill.

But even then the story, it is thought, is not complete. There are little fragments of facts, somewhat elusive, which point to this woman, beautiful and cunning, as an accessory.

The mysterious "J. H. Williams," who got the key to the sixteenth-street house from W. B. Allen, the agent, was much shrewder in dropping from sight than either O'Neill or his wife.

Traces of Mrs. O'Neill have been found and then lost; but "Williams" disappeared as though into a grave. Police officers say that he was the most mysterious person in the trio. Efforts are being made to locate him, but the police say that there is little hope of success.

The motive for the murder was robbery. There is certainty on this point. But even then the story, it is thought, is not complete. There are little fragments of facts, somewhat elusive, which point to this woman, beautiful and cunning, as an accessory.

Credit for the chain of evidence that has been gathered is chiefly due to Detectives Benedict and Sherron of the police department. They are also responsible for the arrest of O'Neill in Indian Territory.

THE FIRST CLUE.

On the afternoon of April 22, a man, wearing a Prince Albert coat, a large felt hat, and looking like a preacher or an actor, entered the Bunderm house at No. 821 West Sixteenth street.

The man was seen to leave the house the next morning, which was Thursday, at about 9 o'clock.

Mills, it will be remembered, left his office on the afternoon of April 22, and was never seen again.

On the afternoon of April 23, O'Neill had his baggage taken to the Arcade hotel. He had said that he was going to Salt Lake City. He employed a messenger boy to hire the express wagon.

But O'Neill, who is the man described as wearing a Prince Albert coat and looking like an actor or preacher, did not leave on the express wagon.

Instead, he left the city on Thursday morning, having first secured a sample cash register from the firm of Dodge Bros., by whom he was employed. He took this register to the depot, but left without it.

On the same day he hired a messenger boy, and drove to Puente. He said to the keeper of the livery stable there: "I've driven this horse pretty hard; take care of it." Until it was known that O'Neill was in the South California jail, none of the local police had any idea of his whereabouts.

AND THE WOMAN.

When Mills telephoned to that person with whom he had an engagement on that Wednesday afternoon, he was in a good humor. He smiled as he talked, and laughed, and there was a triumphant note in the laugh.

When he had hung up the phone, he slapped his thigh and exclaimed: "I've got her!"

Mrs. O'Neill could have been the instrument in the plot. The perpetrator of the crime must have known Mills' penchant for women and played on it. Mrs. O'Neill is described as an exceedingly beautiful woman with a wealth of burnished golden hair and a perfect figure. She dressed elegantly and wore several diamonds in rings.

After luring him to the house, the plotters made a proposition to Mills that he give them the combination to the safe. He was unable to do this, because he did not know it, but he furnished them the key to the outer compartment of the safe. One of the men went to the office of the loan company and rifled the outer chest of the safe but found nothing of any value.

EXPECTED A BIG HAUL.

They expected to secure $500 in bank notes, which, it was supposed, had been received by the loan company that day. This money had been sent from a town in Texas for the purchase of diamonds in charge of the Syndicate Loan Company. How O'Neill and Williams would have secured the money was not explained. They did not find the money, for it arrived the following day.

It is believed Mills was held in the Bunderm house all night, and was not murdered until the morning after his disappearance. On that morning, Mills' body was found in the Bunderm house, and the woman had evidently departed in the night and was probably not a witness to the murder.

It has been ascertained that O'Neill "beat" his landlady out of his rent and also left the grocery in the Bunderm house for the demands for his person here for robbery. He is also wanted in Dayton, O., where he was guilty of embezzlement.

WHERE THE O'NEILLS LIVED.

Three blocks south of the Sixteenth street chamber of horrors in which the bleeding, bloated body of Mills was found by young Allen and the detectives on the afternoon of April 21, the O'Neills lived.

The first announcement that Mills was missing came from his wife, Friday, April 24. He had then been gone two or three days. Not until the following Monday was the body discovered, and its gruesome condition was such that time bespoke only too plainly that it had been lying in the room at least six days. This will be one of the most important pieces of circumstantial evidence introduced at the trial.

O'Neill left a house at No. 1946 Norwood street, owned by Mrs. Mercer, early in April and went to the Bunderm house, which is conducted by Miss A. C. Mercer. With him went his wife and a son, a young boy, named Roy.

Does not believe O'Neill could have done the deed. She said last night: "Mr. O'Neill was a tall, handsome man, rather dark, and one of the most desirable tenants I ever had; he and his wife were very quiet; they never went out, had no callers and always on time for meals; of course I noticed that more than anything else about them. After health appeared, he had, and he seemed to be a very good husband. He was always home in good season in the afternoon, usually about 5 o'clock, when he would come here I do not know. He never volunteered the information and I should say he was under 30 years old. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for giving it up; in fact, the only one he gave for quitting his house was that he was going to leave the city. He never said a word about his business; in fact, he had very little to say to anybody, but was a quiet, reserved man. He rented Mrs. Judson's house across the street from the Bunderm house, and gave no particular reason for

